PICTURESQUE YORKSHIRE.—Staithes Beck

"PICTURESQUE YORKSHIRE"—The N.E. Coast.
[Regd.] Postcard 7557.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE"

From "YORKSHIRE, COAST AND MOORLAND SCENES," by Gordon Home (A. & C. Black).

By Appointment.

Staithes Beck. The fishing village of Staithes is about two miles from Hinderwell (properly Hildawell, after the patron saint of Whitby). It is a little place wedged into the side of a deep and picturesque beck, which is crossed by a ramshackle wooden footbridge. Bold cliffs stand guard over the little bay, and in summer the place is as easel-haunted as Newlyn.

Printed in England.
